O Kotoru

Boka Kotorska kao jedini fjord na mediteranu, u julu 2000. godine uvrštena je u jedan od 25 najljepših fjordova na svijetu, s tim što se ostali nalaze uglavnom u Skandinaviji. Na samom vrhu Bokokotorskog zaliva smješten je Kotor. Ovdje se istorija prati u kontinuitetu od najstarijih vremena. U okolnim pećinama nađeni su tragovi ljudskog postojanja iz doba neolita u obliku različitih alatki i pribora, i crteža na zidovima pećina kao što su Lipci kod Risna.

U antičko doba Ilirska plemenska država je bila prva organizovana ljudska zajednica na ovim prostorima. Krajem III vijeka p.n.e. počinju rimska osvajanja i od 169. god. p.n.e. ovim prostorima vlada Rim, a zatim Vizantija. Prva slovenska plemena dolaze u VII vijeku. Prva slovenska država bila je Duklja, a zatim Zeta. Od kraja XII vijeka Kotorom vladaju članovi dinastije Nemanjića, a od 1420. godine Mletačka Republika, sve do 1797. godine kada Evropu potresaju Napoleonovi ratovi. Nakon burnog perioda od 1797-1814 god., kada na ovim prostorima naizmjenično vladaju Rusi, Francuzi, Austrija i Crnogorci. Na Bečkom kongresu 1814. godine Kotor ulazi u sastav Austrougarske monarhije i ostaje pod vlašću austrougarske sve do 1918. godine kada ova oblast pripada Jugoslaviji, i dijeli sudbinu njenih naroda sve do danas.

Kao rijetko gdje, u Kotoru su sačuvani tragovi minulih epoha. Zbog jedinstvene mješavine različitih kulturnih uticaja Kotor je 1979. godine upisan u spisak svjetske kulturne baštine pod zaštitom UNESCO-a. Najrazvijenija privredna grana na ovom području bila je trgovina i pomorstvo. Pomorci su donosili različite proizvode iz prekomorskih zemalja i ramjenjivali ih za svoje potrepštine. Na taj način Kotor je postao jedan od značajnijih trgovačkih centara na ovom dijelu Jadrana.

About Kotor

Boka Kotorska was added to the list of twenty five most beautiful bays in the world in July 2000 as the only fjord in the Mediterranean, the others being located mainly in Scandinavia. Kotor is situated on the southeast end of Boka Kotorska. The history of Kotor can be traced to the early ancient times. Various tools and ceramics items, witnessing human existence from the Neolithic period have been found in the surrounding caves, as well as drawings on the walls of the cave at Lipci near Risna.

During the ancient period, an Illyrian tribal state was the first organized human settlement in this region. Roman conquest began by the end of the third century BC and in the year 169 BC these territories fell under the Roman rule, followed by the rule of the Byzantine empire. The first Slavic tribes settled here in the 12th century. Their first state was Doclea, later called Zeta. From the late 12th century, Kotor was ruled by the members of the Nemanjic Dynasty until 1420, when the Republic of Venice occupied it, staying until 1797, the time of the Napoleon wars in Europe. After the stormy period from 1797 to 1814, when this area was alternately under the Russian, French, Austrian and Montenegrin rule, Kotor became the constituent of the Austro-Hungary Monarchy and remained under its rule until 1918 when this region became part of Yugoslavia up until its disintegration.

Because of its unique mixture of different cultures, Kotor was enlisted as world cultural heritage site under the protection of the UNESCO. In the past, the most developed industries in this area were trade and maritime affairs. Seafarers used to bring different products from overseas which they would exchange for the goods they were in need of. In that way Kotor became one of the most important trading centers in this part of the Adriatic coast.
